

Farmer Resource Fair

Directory

Organizations

1. Asset to the Resistance
2. Chemeketa Community College: Agriculture Workforce Training
3. Ecotrust: Resilient Food Futures
4. Friends of Family Farmers: Oregon Farm Link
5. Lewis & Clark Law School: Small Business Legal Clinic
6. Oregon Farm Corps
7. OSU Extension Small Farms Program
8. OSU Food Innovation Center
9. Prosper Portland

Asset to the Resistance

Description

Asset to the Resistance challenges the capitalist system through education about money. AR is comprised of accountants, tax preparers, and fiscal consultants who understand the inherently flawed and oppressive logic of capitalist economics. Through education and empowerment, we support our clients in constructing new ways of doing business, one where "success" is not solely defined by numbers, but rather by the overall health of all living things.

Services offered

Tax Preparation
Small Business Consulting
Bookkeeping
Financial Advising

Cost

Sliding-scale options available

Chemeketa Community College: Agriculture Workforce Training

Description

Chemeketa Community College, located in Salem and focuses on serving the people of Marion, Polk, and Yamhill counties. Our agriculture department offers continuing education, workshops, and training to support farmers and agriculturists in our area.

Services offered	Cost
Business Development	For-cost
Educational Resource Provider

Ecotrust: Resilient Food Futures

Description

Ecotrust is a collaborative nonprofit, working with community members and organizations toward a vision of an equitable, prosperous, and climate-smart future. Through Resilient Food Futures, we work across the Portland Metro Region and Oregon to strengthen the long-term viability, resilience, and leadership of underserved producers.

Services offered	Cost
Educational Resource Provider	Free
Technical Support

Friends of Family Farmers: Oregon Farm Link

Description

Friends of Family Farmers advances policies and programs that protect, promote, and sustain resilient and economically viable community agricultural systems in Oregon. All our work and programs are designed to provide support, education, resources, and more to small family farmers in Oregon, in our effort to create a resilient and equitable food system. Our Farm Link

Navigate program provides 1-on-1 technical support for land access to new and aspiring farmers.

The Oregon Pasture Network provides mentorship opportunities for livestock producers to promote agricultural practices that place high value on animal welfare, public health, the planet, and our local rural economies. Our advocacy work advances policies that create viable opportunities for small farmers to thrive and contribute to our food systems.

Services offered	Cost
------------------	------

Land Access	Free
--------------------	-------------

Educational Resource Provider

Lewis & Clark Law School: Small Business Legal Clinic

Description

The Small Business Legal Clinic is an economic justice clinic that provides low-income small business owners and entrepreneurs access to transactional legal services. Under the direction of experienced attorneys, law students represent small and emerging businesses in transactional (not litigation) matters.

Services offered	Cost
------------------	------

Entity Selection and Formation	Sliding-scale options available
---------------------------------------	--

Contract Review and Drafting

Regulatory Compliance

Employment Counseling

Intellectual Property

Copyright

Oregon Farm Corps

Description

Oregon Farm Corps provides hands-on farmer training programs and business technical assistance on beginning businesses and collaborative farming entities for the next generation of farmers and ranchers.

Services offered	Cost
Business Development	Sliding-scale options available

OSU Extension Small Farms Program

Description

The Small Farms Program's mission is to advance sustainable agriculture, community food systems, and economic progress for Oregon's small farmers and ranchers and provide a leading-edge experience for students. We support small-scale farmers in the Portland Metro Area through educational workshops, educational resources, farmer networks, applied research, and individual contact teaching.

Services offered	Cost
Educational Resource Provider	Sliding-scale options available

OSU Food Innovation Center

Description

The Food Innovation Center is a nationally recognized resource dedicated to helping food and beverage companies by serving as a technical, creative, and educational resource for the food industry. We provide product and process development, quality, food safety, shelf life testing, and sensory and consumer testing.

Services offered	Cost
Added Value Product Development	For-cost
Educational Resource Provider

Prosper Portland

Description

Prosper Portland is the economic and urban development agency for the city of Portland. We serve the city and its residents by growing family-wage jobs, advancing opportunities for prosperity, collaborating with partners for an equitable city, and creating vibrant neighborhoods and communities. In partnership with Ecotrust, we provide technical assistance for the Healthy Food Financing Initiative program.

Services offered	Cost
Loan Services	Free
Governmental Resource Provider,
Grants
Technical Assistance

